To: USPTO

Applicant(s): Suthanthiran, et al. Application Serial No.: 10/627,408

Filing Date: July 25, 2003

Our Docket: 955-10 P/CON/DIV

Page 3 of 14

Reply to Office Action of May 2, 2006

RECEIVED CENTRAL FAX CENTER

IN THE CLAIMS:

- (Currently amended) A method for reducing or preventing formation, progression or 1. metastasis of a neoplasm in a mummal human in need thereof, the method comprising treating the mammal human with an effective amount of an angiotensin II inhibitor receptor type AT1 antagonist, wherein the treatment is not part of a chemotherapy or radiation therapy treatment regimen.
- (Cancelled) The method according to claim 1, wherein the angiotensin II inhibitor is 2. an angiotensin Il antagonist.
- 3.-12. Withdrawn
- (Original) The method according to claim 1, wherein the angiotensin II inhibitor is a 13. small molecule.
- (Cancelled) The method according to claim 1, wherein the mammal is a human. 14.